COVER

The cover painting depicts a pair of 3-foot gauge South Pacific Coast Railroad Baldwin 4-4-0's pulling the 8:15 a.m. express off the Alameda Pier. This painting, by the late Howard Fogg, was commissioned by Richard Truesdale, owner of West Side Models, to be used in A Centennial South Pacific Coast, by Bruce A. MacGregor and Richard Truesdale, (Pruett Publishing Company, Boulder, Colorado, 1982.) The painting was reproduced on page 24 of that book. It is now owned by GAZETTE columnist Jim Vail who provided the transparency used to make the cover reproduction.

This magazine is printed on recycled paper with a minimum of 10 percent post-consumer content.
