

WIN A $2,000 HOBBY SHOP BUYING SPREE! SEE PAGE 81

Garden Railways

Logging tall timber in the Pacific Northwest

FEBRUARY

1998

Canada $5.50/$4.50

GARDEN
RAILWAYS
15
YEARS

Gardening from the ground up

Better Bachmann
sound for a buck

Using perspective for more realism

Winter - a season for model building

Garden Railways

Volume 15, Number 1

February 1998

---

FEATURES

---

- 44 What makes a great garden railway?
Slow down, observe, enjoy, and escape
by Judy Arrigotti
- 48 The D&S Express at the Crackerbox Ranch
Dennis and Sharon Ediger's beautiful railway garden
by Pat Hayward
- 56 Winter—a season for model building
One garden railroader's approach to getting more out of it by Jeff Young
- 60 COVER STORY: The Eidskogen Timber Company
Logging in Washington State
by Jim Overland
- 72 Better Bachmann sound for about a buck
Inexpensive components and an evening's work bring big improvements
by George Schreyer
- 84 A view from the window: using perspective for more depth
Garden railway design
by Jack Verducci

---

DEPARTMENTS

---

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 8 EditorialNotes from Marc                                | 94 Scenic rootImposters, impersonators, and mimics  |
| 14 Industry newsWhat's new for the garden railroader      | 100 Scribblings on a workshop wallConsistency in modeling, operating to schedules, and more |
| 24 LettersViews of our readers                            | 104 EventsUpcoming shows and exhibits   |
| 30 Letter from AustraliaThe Curdimurka Ball               | 110 Product reviewsProducts put to the test   |
| 34 PathwaysGardening from the ground up: soil and compost | 118 Club directoryGarden railroading around the world                                       |
| 42 Garden railway basicsDrawing the plan                  | 126 End of the lineT&W's N° 1   |

COVER: Anna Stina, a Shay on Jim Overland's Eidskogen Timber Company, pauses on the switchback while Olaf, the brakeman, changes the switch. Photo: Jim Overland
LEFT: A weathered Aristo-Craft 2-4-2T takes a camp train out over the trestle on the D&S Express. For the full story of this beautiful railway garden, turn to page 48. Photo: Dennis Ediger