

PAGE 41
SWEEPSTAKES!

LGB steam locomotive project Beginner's guide to plants

Garden Railways

JUNE 1998

$4.50

Canada $5.50

U.K. £2.95

The stunning Twin Lakes RR

Building curved tunnels

Tools you should have

NATIONAL CONVENTION PREVIEW

Visit six garden railways

Garden Railways

Volume 15, Number 3

June 1998

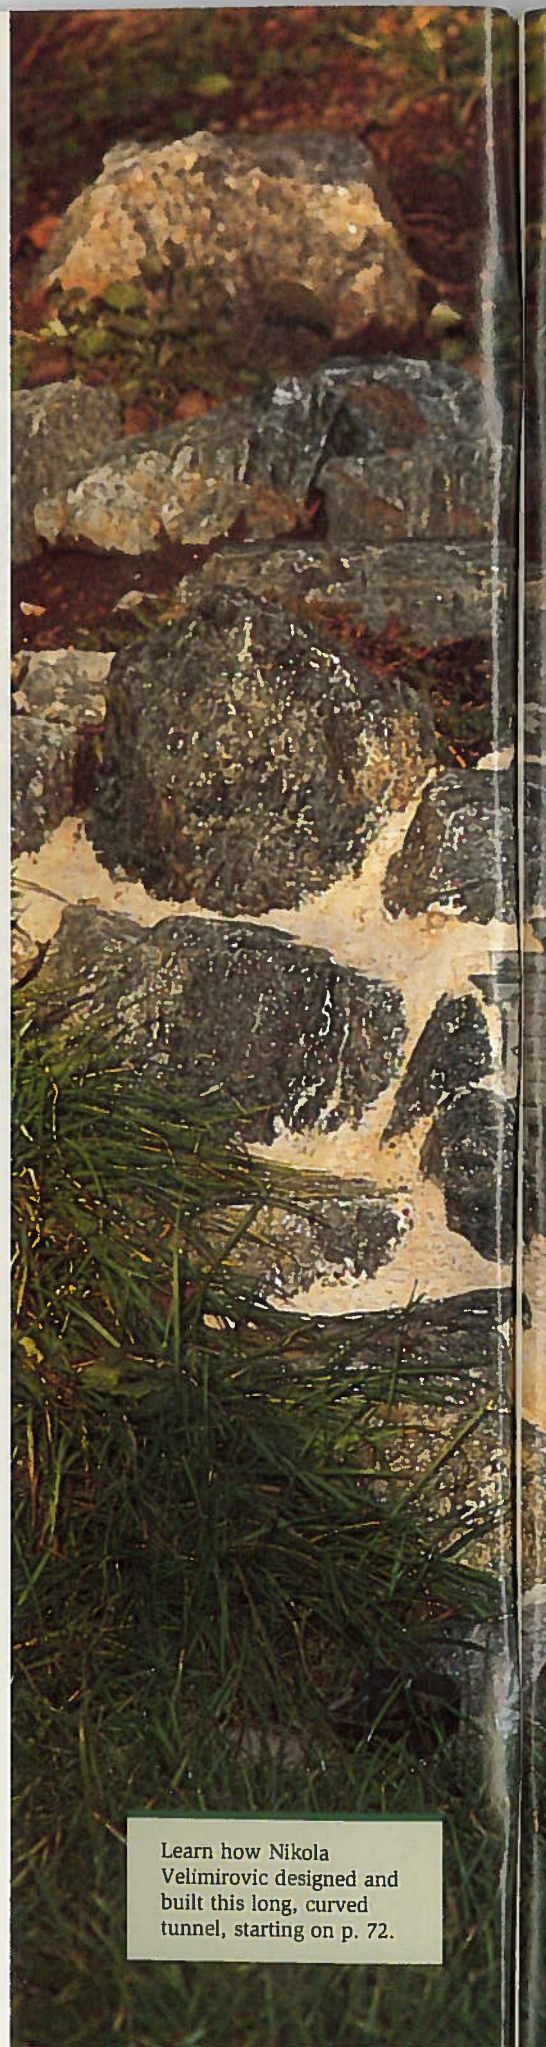

FEATURES

- 46 A NEW SERIES!
Plant Portraits
by Pat Hayward
- 48 What makes a great garden railway?
Diversity, challenge, change, and more
by Paul G. Busse
- 54 Building Acoma Central's No 14
This freelance, outside-frame 2-6-0 is based on an LGB mechanism
by Alan Olson
- 60 COVER STORY
The Twin Lakes Lumber & Mining Railroad
Hard work and a creative approach result in a unique garden railway
by Terry Seese
- 72 Build a long, curved tunnel
A practical approach and an interesting solution
by Nikola Velimirovic
- 76 A 1998 Convention Tour Sampler
See these six garden railways—and more—yourself this July
by Richard Robertshaw
- 84 Fun times in Diamondhead
The 6th National Small-Scale Steamup
by Marc Horovitz
- 88 A garden railroader's tools: part 1
Garden railway design
by Jack Verducci

DEPARTMENTS

- | | | | |
|----|--|-----|--|
| 8 | From the Editor
Notes from Marc | 94 | Scenic root
Violets are blue |
| 14 | Industry news
What's new for the garden railroader | 102 | Scribblings on a workshop wall
The driving force |
| 20 | Letters
Views from our readers | 105 | Events
Upcoming shows and exhibits |
| 28 | Letter from Australia
Acts of God | 110 | Product reviews
Products put to the test |
| 34 | Pathways
Gardening from the ground up, part III:
a beginner's guide to plants | 126 | End of the line
Early days on the Acoma Central |
| 42 | Garden railway basics
Grading on the curve | | |

COVER: A bucolic scene on the Twin Lakes Lumber & Mining Railroad. See the story on p. 60.

Learn how Nikola Velimirovic designed and built this long, curved tunnel, starting on p. 72.